In 2005 Rick returned to his alma mater, Norwich University, and serves today as an Associate Vice President of Development and Alumni Relations. In this capacity, he is responsible for a team of Major Gift Officers, Class Relations, Stewardship Programs associated with Scholarships and the Donor Recognition. He is also liaison to the Partridge Society Board. Rick and his team are primarily focused on the $55 Million Norwich Forever! Campaign announced at Homecoming 2005.

Prior to re-joining Norwich, Rick worked to become a sought-after trainer delivering values-based leadership programs that improve the performance of teams and organizations. Recognized for his presence in the classroom and his knowledge of leadership issues, Rick has brought his passion for improving performance to organizations as varied as Motorola, Abbott Labs, PepsiCo, the United States Air Force, the Social Security Administration and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

He has an MBA in General Management from the University of Michigan and is a graduate of the Army's Command and General Staff College. He is active in the Vermont National Guard having served as the Battalion Commander of the 3-124th Information Operations Battalion. Earlier in his active duty career, he served on the Demilitarized Zone in South Korea with the 2nd Infantry Division. He is a veteran Operation Just Cause in Panama where he was the Chief, All Source Intelligence Center for the 7th Special Forces Group (Airborne) and Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan where he was deployed with Vermont National Guard and assigned to the 10th Mountain Division with Joint Task Force Phoenix.

His Army schools include, the Infantry Army Officer Basic Course, Military Intelligence Officer Advance Course (Imagery) and the United States Army's Airborne, Air Assault Course and Ranger Course.

Rick lives with his wife and two children in Northfield, Vermont.

He is slated to be the J-2 at JTF Phoenix with the 86th IBCT (Mountain) in the near future.
